History of Echoes

Echoes

*And so, we made this cliff side house where glaciers made the sight,
We thought that in these walls,
In this escarpment light,
Your world would grow in promise and grievance be set right.
Hearing the valley's vast green sea,
You should let its answer set you free.*

*Tom Keneally
Sunday, 17th March 1991*

Echoes Boutique Hotel & Restaurant was designed by architect Peter Doreen and built in 1990 as a retreat for Australian writer Thomas Keneally and his television colleagues. The current building replaced a historic homestead that was commissioned by Florence Young in the late 20's. Florence Young was a missionary who travelled extensively to the Far East and Papua New Guinea to preach Christianity and undertake missionary works.

From late 40's until mid-80's the old homestead was a retreat for the Australian Christian Nurses movement. By mid-80's the house was in a poor state of repair and became a fire hazard. Following its demolition in late 80's, the site was auctioned and the concept for Echoes guesthouse was born. The result is a 3 storey contemporary guest house that combines a sleek modern design with a touch of federation.

Built on the edge of the escarpment overlooking the Jamison Valley, Echoes was one of the first luxury guesthouses in the mountains to offer award-winning cuisine. Dining is always a focal point for the Blue Mountains and Echoes had its origins with the famous chef Claude Corne, the chef behind "Claude's" of Woollahra, who cemented Echoes as a fine dining venue in the early to mid-90's.

Over the years, Echoes has evolved from a luxury B&B to what is now a thriving Boutique Hotel with a busy award-winning restaurant, bar & lounge. Echoes remains an iconic and stylish boutique Hotel with a much sought-after location in the world heritage listed Blue Mountains national park.
